

Pennsylvania Act 153 Requirements

In accordance with Pennsylvania Domestic Relations Code (23 PA.C.S.) – Omnibus Amendments Act of Oct 22, 2014, P.L. 2529, No. 153, all Registered Adult Volunteers within the state of Pennsylvania must obtain clearance prior to working with children. Those volunteers approved by this Headquarters prior to August 25, 2015 must submit their completed certifications no later than July 1, 2016. Volunteers approved after August 25, 2015 may not work with the Young Marines until their completed certifications have been sent to Headquarters. Every volunteer is required to obtain the Child Abuse Clearance, Pennsylvania State Police Criminal History Check, and Disclosure Statement or FBI Federal Criminal History Certification. Links to each of these certifications are listed below.
