

Young Marines of the Palm Beaches

Poolee Program

Poolees may:

- begin at any drill
- learn COD and PT
- get a head start on some areas of recruit training
- participate in unit level social activities
- attend unit graduation ceremonies, as a guest, in civilian clothing
- NOT participate in parades, ceremonies, and activities outside of drill, except as noted above
- enter next recruit class without additional paperwork if an orientation is attended

Poolees must:

- Be a current student between 8 and 18 (or completion of high school)--whichever is later
- Not be convicted of a felony nor a misdemeanor involving weapons, drugs, child abuse, or violence
- Turn in required paperwork
 - registration packet
 - social security number, INS identification card, or Tax ID number must be verified
 - date of birth must be verified (show copy of birth certificate)
 - current physical (could be a copy of this year's school physical)
 - immunization records (or a waiver form)
 - a copy of medical insurance card (or note if you have none)
- Pay registration fee (currently $75)
- Be entered in our database (allow up to 72 hours)
- Request an excuse from the unit commander (and copy the adjutant) if drill will be missed

Poolee uniform:

Plain white, crew neck T-shirt – Shirts to be tucked in.

No baggy/tight or skinny jeans. Above image is perfect.

Plain black web belt. Does not have to be exactly this one. Just similar black belt

Plain white crew socks

Plain black sneakers (or similar)

Bring a water bottle, extra white t-shirt, extra white socks, and plain black athletic basketball-style shorts (about knee length).
